Notes on post-results services

These costs are per exam paper. For example, A level maths with Pearson is three papers so would be £147.60 for a review of marking across all three papers.

Applications for post-results services will only be accepted on the attached form and cannot be processed until payment has been received. Payment should be cash only. If a grade changes as a result of a review of marking, the payment will be refunded.

Review of marking - this may lead to a new grade being issued which is higher or lower than the grade which was originally awarded.

Applications can only be processed with the student's express written permission.

Applications received after the deadline cannot be accepted, as the exam board will not process them.

Completed application forms should be sent via email to exams@churchill-academy.org
